

Spring 2019 SUSTAINABILITY DROPS: News from EXPRA members

	Sector innovation plans 2019-2022 Together with the Netherlands Institute of Sustainable Packaging more than twenty sector organizations have drawn up their sector innovation plans for 2019-2022. Amongst these organizations there are those active in the food industry, cosmetics, plants and flowers and the e-commerce. The sector innovation plans contain goals and measures which will improve the sustainability of the packaging used. These are intended to reduce the amount of packaging used and to improve the recyclability and reusability of plastic packaging. KIDV expects that the sector innovation plans will contribute to reduction, reuse and improved recycling of resources and packaging materials. https://www.kidv.nl/8728/de-toekomst-van-duurzaam-verpakken-in-zeventien-brancheplannen.html?ch=DEF [link to webpage sector innovation plans] https://www.kidv.nl/8705/brancheplannen-duurzaam-verpakken.html?ch=DEF	Afvalfonds Verpakkingen  Netherlands Institute for Sustainable Packaging
	CONAI contest for prevention and packaging sustainability: 2019 edition This year CONAI promotes environmental sustainability with the “CONAI contest for prevention and packaging sustainability: 2019 edition”, aimed at rewarding the most innovative and ecofriendly packaging solutions placed on the market in the 2017-

2018 biennium. The available budget is equal to € 500,000, which is divided as follows:

- € 410,000 in proportion to the score of all admitted solutions;
- € 60,000 for best solutions referred to single material (steel, aluminium, paper, wood, plastic and glass);
- € 30,000 in Enlarged Technical Committee opinion (Awards for Circular Economy), for one or more of the following eco-design drivers:
 - Design for reuse,
 - Design for recycling,
 - Use of secondary materials.

Regolamento Bando Prevenzione Conai 2019

<http://www.conai.org/en/prevention/thinking-about-the-future/stewardship-tender/>

10 WAYS TO BE A CONSCIOUS CONSUMER

A conscious consumer is someone who considers the health effects, and environmental and social impacts before making a decision on what to buy. Learn the top 10 ways to be a more conscious consumer by considering the health effects, and environmental and social impacts of products and companies before making the decision to buy.

10 ways to be a conscious consumer

